

SAVE THE DATE:
DECEMBER 7, 2011

The American Bar Association Section of International Law and The International Division of the Law Society of England and Wales
Present a Joint Conference:

CAPITAL MARKETS IN THE 21st CENTURY

LONDON, ENGLAND

This practical, interactive one-day conference will provide capital markets practitioners with insight from leading outside counsel, in-house counsel, bankers and regulators on how deals have recently evolved.

This program will also offer a unique forum for international lawyers to expand their networking activities and meet colleagues from all over the global legal community.

Topics will include:

- Differences in Emerging Markets
- Decisions Regarding Where to List
- Impacts of the Regulatory Overhaul Impact on Deal Structures
- Implications of Clearing
- Trends in Both the Equity Capital Markets and Debt Capital Markets

CLE/CPD Accreditation Pending

For more information and to receive an alert when registration opens, please contact:
events@lawsociety.org.uk

For sponsorship opportunities, please contact Audrey Lamb at Audrey.Lamb@AmericanBar.org